STYLISH SOLUTIONS

Organic forms and hits of colour spice up minimalist office spaces

BY DIANE CHAN

1 Beat by Andreu World

Beat can be used as an ottoman or a side chair, lending warmth and coziness to otherwise sterile offices. Available in three sizes, upholstered in numerous fabrics and leathers. andreuworld.com

2 Pilot by Knoll

Barber & Osgerby's Pilot chair is defined by its slim silhouette, which features a seemingly cantilevered seat. It can be covered in fabric or leather and comes in high- and low-back models. knoll.com

3 Eiffel by Skitsch by Hub Design

Pagani Perversi's extruded aluminum table, offered in six sizes, is available with fixed or foldable legs in a bevy of colours. hub-design.eu.skitsch.com

4 Variable by Teknion

This height-adjustable plastic swivel chair with an integrated tilt back is ideal for touch-down zones, training and lecture rooms or casual workstations, where the full functionality of a task chair may not be needed. teknion.com

5 Desk 3.0 by MDF Italia

Bruno Fattorini's workstation, in black or white, is made of aluminum with a high-pressure laminate tabletop. Accessories include a cable management door, a PC stand, soundproofing and partition screens, pen and object holders, and a chest of drawers. mdfitalia.it

6 Oculus by Coalesse

Created by Danish designer Hans J. Wegner, the CH468 Oculus features a roomy back with sloping armrests, to encourage reading or relaxation. It comes in leather or fabric with stainless steel legs. coalesse.com
